

"And immediately she stood up straight and praised God."

Luke 13:15

The Commission for Women of the Diocese of Worcester
presents

Gather Us In 2009

The Triumph of Forgiveness

A gathering of women from all over the Worcester Diocese and beyond to pray together and grow in faith.

November 7, 2009 • DCU Center
50 Foster Street, Worcester

Paula D'Arcy

Writer, retreat leader and seminar speaker
Psychotherapist specializing in grief and loss
Founder of the Red Bird Foundation

"Great Lessons from the Journey"

Immaculée Ilibagiza

Noted author & speaker, she shares her stories of faith (as a survivor of the Rwandan genocide), and forgiveness towards those who murdered her family during the genocide. Based on her best-selling book, Left to Tell.

"Led by Faith"

Plus workshops by Jaymie Stuart Wolfe (author, speaker, musician): "Fan the Flame: Living a Life Fueled by the Spirit," Linda Gray Kelley (dramatic actress) performing scenes from "Women of the Bible," Ellen Dabrieo, SND (former missionary to Brazil) with a multimedia presentation on Dorothy Stang, SND, and Virginia Blass (certified spiritual director, preacher and retreat master, published author) presenting "Seeking Peace of Soul."

Tickets are $45 per person; $20 for students. Lunch is included in the fee.

Visit www.worcestercommissionforwomen.org to register and find out more.

You can also call Carolyn Black at (508) 836-4686